'Analysis of the preliminary figures of "Analysis of the preliminary figures of the exports of .domestic merchandlise during the fiscal year ended June 30th shows that the South is maintaining its long established position as an important basis for our foreign trade, while at the same time gaining a stronger position than ever as a handler of outward-bound goods.

"The total value of the exports of domestic merchandise, of which cotton exports represented nearly 23 per cent, was $1,382,081,672, an increase over the fiscal year ended June 30th of $36,605,811. In that increase the value of cotton exports represented more than 70 per cent, the advance having been from $290,141,-851 to $315,847,105, or $25,705,754, the number of bales exported increasing from 6,882,767 to 6,932,110. The value of meat and dairy products decreased from $18,1598,098 to $150,338,716, or $21,261,380; of mineral oils from $70,948,609 to $55,118,303, or $35,303,96, and of cattle and hogs from $28,535,531 to $28,520,885, or $18,646, a total decreased for these articles of $27,110,332. The value of breadstuff exports increased from $205,002,669 to $213,043,296. The total value of the exports of do-

"The total of the increase in the value of breadstuffs, $8,020,627, and of cotton, $25,05,754, was within $12,879,430 of the total increase in the value of all merchandise exports from the country during the year.

"These figures do not take into account the value of the exports of cotton-seed and its products; of cotton goods, the bulk of which for the export trade are produced in the South; of lumber, in which the South is taking a stronger and stronger position with every year, both as a producer and as a handler at its ports, and of naval stores practically monopolized by the South, nor do they concern the great part played in the coastwire and internal trade of the country in the handling of timber, coal, iron, off and other Southern products."

RUNAWAY CAR.

The Passenger and Power Company ran in a number of new carmen in Manchester yesterday. Some of them were apparently inexperienced men, and car No. 413 was reported for fast running. The car, it was reported, was run down Hull Street at a rapid rate, and when it reached the Seventh Street curve it jumped the track and ran some distance into the street. Fortunately, no one was hurt.

the proposed automobile company and one prominent citizen said last night that he had walked for about a month, and he would continue to do so until Monday, when he proposed to ride, no matter what course the strike may have taken.

He said he couldn't see why he should be expected to walk indefinitely to the detriment of his heath. "There is reason in all things," he said.

LOSS TO THE CITY.

A member of the City Council said last night that the strike was causing the city to lose something like $200 a month in taxes. The Passenrer and Power Company pays into the treasury a tax on its receipts, which last year amounted to $1800.

July and August are usually the best months, and as the people are declining to use the cars, so the amount the city gets will be reduced.
